

House Resolution No. 3302

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators whose significant contributions of time and energy help ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Charlotte H. Angotti of Wardell, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a kindergarten-through-twelfth-grade guidance counselor in the North Pemiscot R-I School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close on June 2, 2008, in well-deserved retirement after thirty-five years in the field of education; and

Whereas, in addition to being the scholarship director for each senior class, Charlotte Angotti taught character education classes for kindergarten-through-fifth-grade students and made nine trips to Jefferson City with fourth-grade classes; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Charlotte Angotti was named the Southeast District Counselor of the Year in 2000 and 2004 and was the Multi Level State Counselor of the Year for 2004; and

Whereas, Charlotte Angotti also deserves mention of her service as a Girl Scout leader, service unit manager, and trainer and for her receipt of the Girl Scout Honor Pin that recognizes exceptional duty in more than two or three geographical areas; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of Danny Angotti, Charlotte Angotti is justifiably proud also to be known as the loving mother of Jill Danyelle Angotti Hooten and Jeremy Angotti and as the wonderful grandmother of Olivia Hooten; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of such outstanding Missouri educators as Charlotte Angotti:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in the life and work of Charlotte Angotti and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Charlotte H. Angotti of Wardell, Missouri.
